ELY CATHEDRAL NEWS for schools

Summer Term 2011

The Cathedral is a wonderful resource for all ages- even very young ones!

Over this term, over 300 Key Stage 1 pupils have visited us for a Shape and Colour Trail.
Come and see what we can offer your pupils!

With all good wishes
Jan Munt Cathedral Education Officer

TUDOR DAYS!

This is a new joint venture that we are trialling with the Stained Glass Museum this term.

In the Museum pupils will learn about the making of stained glass; a skill unchanged over the centuries, and will understand the heartbreak felt by so many when it was destroyed on Henry's orders.

In the Cathedral, pupils will become monks and debate the forthcoming Dissolution of the Monasteries and how it will change their lives. They will witness for themselves the damage to the statues and stained glass.

A BIG THANK-YOU!

To all of you who have returned our Evaluation Forms.

We are doing our best to respond to all your feedback.

Please let us know if you would like us to offer a particular trail or experience of the Cathedral. We are always happy to try something new!

OCTOBER SCHOOLS DAYS

11th 12th 19th & 20th October

This year we will be celebrating the 200th anniversary of mass education in this country and the 400th anniversary of the publication of the King James' Bible. With the help of historical re-enactors from Hands on the Past the days will give a flavour of the Regency period when these two momentous events took place.

All four days are almost full so please contact me immediately if you haven't already booked and we may be able to squeeze you in!

LEARNING DAY

Thursday 13th October

This is a day of workshops and activities to support the teaching of Diplomas for 14 –19 year olds.

Eels to wheels –food production in Fenland at Ely Museum

A Ship, Wide Sky and Eel Pie – travel and tourism at the Tourist Office

Symbol of Power and Glory - the builders and building of Ely Cathedral

AND MUCH MORE!
