WHO ARE THE FRIENDS?

The Friends of Ely Cathedral is a worldwide group of people who choose to support, and keep in touch with, our amazing 'Ship of the Fens'.

As a registered charity the organisation raises much needed funds by subscriptions, donations, legacies and activities. These are used to help maintain and support our great Cathedral and enable it to continue inspiring both visitors and worshippers.

New members are always welcome!

In recent years The Friends have paid for:

- Installation of Octagon floodlighting
  - Altar frontal chest
  - New choir cassocks
  - A new chamber organ
  - Underfloor heating in The Lady Chapel
  - Provision of toilets adjacent to The Processional Way
  - A new computerised lighting system especially designed for the Cathedral
  - Concert staging
  - Internal & external signboards
  - Admission desk at the West Door
  - The overhaul of the West Tower clock and the provision of an automatic winding system
  - Wooden stacking chairs
  - The 'Way of Life' Sculpture
- Current projects include the re-ordering the East end of the Lady Chapel and the restoration of Cathedral monuments.

AS A FRIEND YOU WILL RECEIVE...

- An Entry Pass which allows unlimited free access to the Cathedral and, uniquely, to the Stained Glass Museum situated in the South Nave Triforium of the Cathedral.
